Holy Crap, It's Paper With Words On It!

I'm a full THREE YEARS early on this issues, compared to the last one. But that's just because I'm going to be super lazy and not include any crossword puzzles or games or really anything original at all, just so I can have something new to give people who order garbage from me. Basically I'll just be filling this shit with advertisements and old things from the website. And I'm not even going to make it shaped like the previous PLA Monthly issues. It's just going to be a piece of paper. And there's nothing you can do about it.

So what's happened since the Winter 2010 issue? Harley Davidson told me to quit selling the PLA shirts that looked like their logo or else. A bunch of PLA people met for Defcon in Las Vegas and a huge orgy ensued, including RBCP, RTH, r0xy, murd0c, Jenn, Sudo, and Laugh Track Matt. We came up with billions of brilliant new prank call concepts including leaving notes on cars for them to call us back, tricking businesses out of customer info, filling our apartments with sand and other insane tenant stories which lead to a new hit song by Redbox and the Chilipeppers, and doing prank calls based on news stories which brought us Jolonta the iPad lady and peeing on pizza customer doorknobs, and a brand new prime time hit television show called Telephone Falls. Also, Cacti Radio was taken over by new management and their first order of business was to shut down The Phone Show forever, so now I'm making tons of new YouTube videos and doing random shows on the Madhouse stream whenever I feel like it.

OMG I'm Going To Kill Everyone At Skype

Earlier this year they killed my account for no reason after I'd just paid $60 on it. And just now, they canceled my newest account for no reason again. At least this time I was paying by the month, so I'd only lose a couple of bucks from them this time. Dammit dammit dammit dammit dammit.

Anyway, I'm only making this thing for people who ordered stickers from me this past month. I've got about 30 people who I'm sending stickers to next week when the stickers arrive, so thanks you sticker people for helping me pay for this batch of stickers and for motivating me to make a new PLA Monthly. And all you people who receive this over the next 10 years, sorry this is so out of date.

Luv,

Brad
